OVERVIEW

05 - 16 Sep, 2026

Discover Scotland over 12 unforgettable days — from Loch Lomond to Islay, Iona & the Highlands, where history, nature, and culture meet.

Scotland is a land of dramatic contrasts — from its rugged Highlands and serene island shores to grand castles, historic towns, and warm, character-filled villages. Mist-covered mountains, ancient lochs, sweeping coastlines, and rich folklore create a backdrop unlike anywhere else in the world.

Our journey begins just outside Glasgow, where we head north into landscapes steeped in legend. We'll cruise the shimmering waters of Loch Lomond, wander the stately halls of Inveraray Castle, and venture to the famed Isle of Islay — home to world-renowned whisky, windswept beaches, and deep Gaelic heritage.

Returning to the mainland, we continue through Scotland's heartlands to Oban, gateway to the Isles, before sailing to mystical Iona and the dramatic basalt cliffs of Staffa and Fingal's Cave. In the Highlands, we'll explore ancient battle sites, tour historic forts, and cruise the dark waters of Loch Ness — perhaps catching a glimpse of its elusive resident.

Along the way you'll savour local delicacies, hear tales of clan power and ancient kingdoms, and visit castles still home to Scotland's great families. From wool-weaving heritage to tartans of Hollywood fame, from private dining experiences to whisky tastings, this is a journey rich in story, culture, and unforgettable scenery.

Scotland's magic lies not just in the places you visit, but in the spirit you feel — woven through music, landscapes, and warm Highland hospitality. You'll experience all this... and so much more.

As you settle on the coach, keep an eye out — a special surprise awaits! Along the way, you'll pass rivers, forests, and glimpses of Highland life, from sheep-dotted hills to quaint villages.

Dating back to the 18th century, the castle boasts grand interiors, priceless art, and centuries of history intertwined with the powerful Campbell clan. Discover the tales of battles, intrigues, and the lives of the Scottish aristocracy as you tour the stately rooms.

Explore the island's peaceful shores, historic ruins, and charming village. Lunch is at leisure.

In the afternoon, we sail to the volcanic island of Staffa to visit the famed Fingal's Cave. Its spectacular hexagonal basalt columns — formed by ancient lava flows and shaped by the Atlantic — create a dramatic landscape linked to Ireland's Giant's Causeway.
